WELCOME TO CARNIVAL

Welcome to Carnival 2002! We look forward to hosting you during Carnival Week to cap off what has already been an outstanding year. When I committed to being President of Carnival a couple of years ago, I knew I would be in for a lot of work and a lot of fun. Certainly, those expectations have been met. What I could not foresee was just how much my wife, Ann, and I would enjoy meeting and getting to know the fabulous Grand Krewes that help make up Carnival. Tonight and throughout the week you will see our Krewes in full regalia. What you don't see is how hard they work to make Carnival, and Memphis, better for everyone. From fashion shows, to sock hops to karaoke and more, the Krewes have been raising money to support Carnival's Children's Charities Initiative. This year's honored charities are featured in this Program, and I would invite you to read about them.

As many of you know, Carnival is founded and operates on the basis of three "C's" - Commerce, Community and Celebration. While everyone is familiar with the Celebration part of Carnival, many are not so familiar with Carnival's role in Commerce and Community. As for Commerce, Carnival annually hosts a luncheon for and honors the people and businesses who are the leaders in Carnival's honored industry. This year's industry is Financial Services, which, of course, is represented by King Ralph of the House of Horn, who in his spare time serves as Chairman and CEO of First Tennessee National Bank. At our Business and Industry luncheon, we honored Allen Morgan with our highest award, the Cook Halle award, named in honor of the founders of Carnival. Allen's recognition resulted from the huge impact he and Morgan Keegan have had on the Memphis economy, as well as his service to the community, including Carnival, where he served as President in 1976. Also honored were Jack Moore, CEO of Union Planters (as well as a past King), and A. Maceo Walker, Sr. and Jesse Turner, Sr., founders of Tri-State Bank, one of the oldest African-American owned banks in the U.S.

While Carnival's role in the area of Commerce has been significant, perhaps Carnival's least known but most significant efforts have been in the Community. The establishment of the Children's Charities Initiative a few years ago has served to take Carnival to a new level in supporting our Community. The impact Carnival has had on the charitable community has been more than what we could have imagined. However, long before the Children's Charities Initiative, Carnival has provided a way for people from all walks of life to gather together and just have fun with each other - and that is a big part of what being a community is all about. This year marks a particular milestone in Carnival history, as the Court of 2002, as well as the Grand Krewes, are more diverse than ever. We hope this just marks another chapter in Carnival's history of bringing the Community together through frivolity and merriment.

Thank you for coming, and enjoy the week!!

LEE CARRUTHERS STURDIVANT QUEEN OF CARNIVAL

Her Majesty, Queen Lee Carruthers Sturdivant, is an incredible Mississippi beauty that has a smile that takes your breath away. Queen Lee is a graduate of Pillow Academy in Greenwood, Mississippi where she finished sixth in her class. She served as Student Council President, and is a member of "Pillow Academy's Hall of Fame." During each of her years of High School, Queen Lee was an Honor Society member, involved in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Homecoming Maid, and active in various clubs. Not only beautiful, Queen Lee is an avid and accomplished athlete. She played on a State Championship Soccer team, and lettered in Cross Country, Track, and Basketball, winning two state and two overall championships.

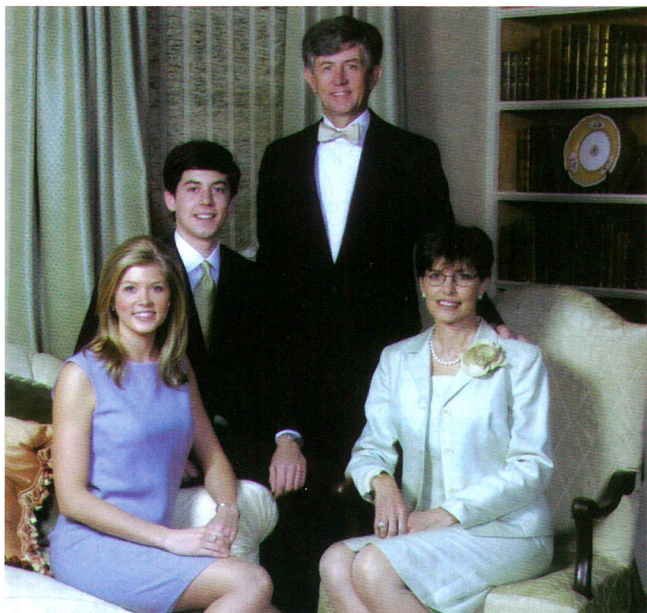

Our Queen is a firm believer in community service and voluntarism. She has worked as a volunteer for Habitat for Humanity, Food Pantry, Relay for Life, Tupelo's Garner-Simmons Home, and Oxford's First Presbyterian Christmas Store. She is a member of 1st Presbyterian Church in Greenwood, Mississippi. Queen Lee is currently a junior at the University of Mississippi, in Oxford, majoring in Marketing and Dental Hygiene. As an involved member of Chi Omega Sorority, she has served on the Executive Board and Scholarship Committee, been a Parade of Beauties nominee each year, Recruitment Chairman last year, and is currently Panhellenic Representative. Her college accomplishments also include the National Society of Collegiate Scholars, Golden Key, ODK, Order of Omega, Student Body Senator, Chancellor's and Dean's List, and Chancellor's Leadership Class. Her athletic prowess has continued at Ole Miss, where she has played Intramural Golf, Basketball, and Flag Football (as star receiver for the championship team).

Queen Lee and her family have been involved in Carnival Memphis for years. She was a Royal Page in 1990, and King Peyton Self's Princess in 2000. Her mother, Jan Carruthers Sturdivant, was a Royal Court member twice. Her grandfather, Ewing Carruthers was General Chairman of the Grand Krewe of RaMet in 1956. Queen Lee is very excited about her reign during the 71st anniversary of "The Party with a Purpose."

The Queen's big brother, Micajah is a member of the Grand Krewe of Osiris. She has taken a special interest in involving all the Royal Court members in the Carnival Memphis Children's Charity Initiative, which is entering it's fourth year. The Queen has selected Special Cargo (part of United Cerebral Palsy of the Mid-South) as her special children's charity in honor of her mother's life long interest in horses and horseback riding.

Despite the more than two hour commute from their Itta Bena, Mississippi farm home, where Mike grows cotton, corn, and soy beans, Mike, Jan and Queen Lee have already enjoyed the Carnival festivities at many of the Grand Krewe coronations and celebrations thus far. They have started new friendships and will certainly become even more involved in the Memphis community throughout the season.

Queen Lee expressed the following thoughts on Carnival, "Memphis has always felt like a second home to me. I am thrilled once again to have the opportunity to make more Memphis friends and contribute to the community through Carnival and the Children's Charity Initiative. Seventy-one years ago, Carnival began with a close connection between Memphis and the Delta. I am pleased to be able to continue that tradition in 2002."

RALPH HORN KING OF CARNIVAL

This year, as Carnival celebrates the Financial Services Industry, it is appropriate that the King is Ralph Horn, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of First Tennessee National Corporation and First Tennessee Bank National Association, one of the most successful financial services firms in the state and nation. Headquartered on Madison Avenue, just a few blocks away from its original locale in 1864, it is an independent, high-performing financial services company, with a nationwide reputation for achievement. The company's history is intertwined with the growth of our community as the sixth oldest business in Memphis and the largest Financial Services employer in the city.

Under the guidance of King Ralph, First Tennessee has become one of the fifty largest bank holding companies in the United States in asset size and market capitalization, with $20.6 Billion in assets and $4.6 Billion in market capitalization at year-end 2001. The company does business with approximately 1.1 million consumers and 90,000 businesses nationwide. Although the financial success of the company has been exceptional, Ralph considers First Tennessee's ranking as one of the nation's best employers as their greatest accomplishment. The company has garnered its fifth consecutive placement on Fortune Magazine's list of the 100 Best Companies to Work For In America. This award was added to similar recognition from Business Week and Working Mother Magazine. "Encouraging and supporting our employees in embracing both personal and professional goals and priorities is a long-term cultural imperative that has paid huge rewards for First Tennessee's employees, customers, shareholders, and communities", says King Ralph.

Born and raised in Corinth, Mississippi, Ralph started at First Tennessee as a management trainee immediately after graduating from Mississippi State University. He was named manager of the bank's bond division in 1971, which he successfully led until being named President, Chief Operating Officer and a Director of First Tennessee National Corporation (FTNC) on July 30, 1991. At that time he was also named Vice Chairman and a Director of First Tennessee Bank National Association, FTNC's principal subsidiary. Ralph was named Chief Executive Officer of both companies on April 19, 1994 and on January 1, 1996 he also became Chairman of the Board of Directors. During his successful career, our King found the time to graduate from the Advanced Management Program at Harvard University.

Ralph has been very involved within the Financial Services Industry having been both a Board Member and Chairman of the Board of the Public Securities Association, and Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board. He was a co-founder and past co-Chairman of the Regional Municipal Securities Association. He has served on a wide array of banking associations as a board member including the Dealer Bank Association, Financial Services Roundtable, and Tennessee Bankers Association. Ralph felt privileged to be a member of the Advisory Board of the Anthony Commission on Tax Reform for the United States Government. Aside from running a publicly traded financial services behemoth, our King sits on the Board of Directors of three other public companies, Harrah's Entertainment, Inc., Mid-America Apartment Communities, Inc., and Gaylord Entertainment.

Ralph has been married to the former Pat White for 25 years. They have a son, Tyler and daughter, Maggie. Both of the Horn children have a taste of Carnival, with Maggie having been a Royal Page in 1997, and Tyler a Scarab this year. Ralph has two older sons, David and his wife Leslie reside in Longmeadow, Massachusetts, with their two children. Darrell and his wife Ann live in Memphis with their two children. Ralph and Pat share a love of the outdoors in all climates, whether playing golf, fly fishing, golf, snow skiing, or playing golf. They enjoy their time together traveling throughout the world.

Ralph gave the following statement regarding being King: "It is a distinct honor to be selected as King of Carnival, representing the Financial Services industry that I've worked in since I was just one week out of college - just a few short decades ago. My co-workers and peers have enabled our community to weather many an economic downturn better than most communities, and they should be proud of the work they do to promote economic activity and growth for us all. Carnival has been called the "Party with a Purpose", and everyone involved should hold their heads high for the work they do to support the charitable groups that help our community's children in need. Finally, it's with great pride that I welcome a broad cross-section of our citizens to join us as we celebrate and support the tremendous things that are happening in our community."

The Scarabs get their name from the ancient Egyptian symbol that represents perpetual life and the sun's continual journey through the heavens. The Scarab symbol also represents Carnival's constant effort to promote our community and its many assets.

The primary charge for our Scarabs is to serve the King and Queen and spread the spirit of celebration among all loyal subjects of the Realm of Carnival.

THANK YOU FOR A GREAT YEAR!

I wanted to thank everyone who has helped make my first year so very memorable. When I accepted this position I believed it would be a great way to give something back to the community that has given so much to me and my family in the last twelve years. After going through my first Carnival season, I know that I have received much more than I have given. Through all the ups and downs, twists and turns, championship prize fights, etc., Carnival Memphis has surpassed any of our expectations. The friendships I have made this year will surely last a lifetime.

It would be impossible to thank everyone who has been such a great help to me individually, since it would take half the pages of this program. A special thanks to the Board of Directors, Grand Krewe Chairpersons and members, volunteers and vendors who have helped me so very much. So many people have taken the time to help with several events, it is very hard to single each person out, but without the help of some people I could not have survived this year, including Tempe Thompson, Denise and Wayne Anderson, Cheryl Bledsoe, Tay and Claude Chafin, Hesta Williams and Sally Bruno. A special thanks to my first King and Queen and their families who have supported everything we have done this year. Carnival Memphis could not have asked for more regal, more caring, more positive people to be our leaders. I would like to single out President Bobby Leatherman and his wife Ann who have given their time so generously and worked tirelessly this year to make Carnival 2002 a great success. I am proud to call them friends.

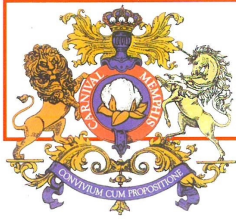

Thank you again to everyone in the Carnival Memphis family for making our 71st year a memorable and positive experience for all of us. The future is bright for our organization and our community. With all of your help, Carnival Memphis will continue to shine.

Very truly yours,

Ed Galfsky

A Carnival Business Focus Program

FINANCIAL SERVICES

Each year Carnival celebrates the accomplishments and contributions of an industry that is vital to the economy of the Mid-South. This year's honored industry, Financial Services, has played a major role in the development and evolution of our economy. Memphis has become one of the leading Financial markets in the United States, with three of the top fifty banks in the country headquartered here. The Mid-South is also home to a number of the most successful securities brokers, venture capital firms, investment management companies and bond traders in the United States.

have made their mark on our community not only through their business acumen, but also by being true corporate citizens. The President's Award was presented to Jackson W. Moore, Chairman and CEO of Union Planters. Mr. Moore was recognized for his years of service to the Financial Services Industry as well as the Mid-South community. The King's Award was bestowed in Memoriam on Mr. A. Maceo Walker, Sr., the founder of Tri-State Bank of Memphis, and Mr. Jesse Turner, Sr., who ran the bank for many years. Tri-State Bank was one of the first African-American financial institutions in the United States and Mr. Walker and Mr.
